However, you could still be eligible for Medicaid if you have a disability or special health care needs that you didn't report on your application. To learn more, visit HealthCare.gov/people-with-disabilities or call your state Medicaid agency to ask about rules for your state.

- You can't choose or change plans now because Open Enrollment is over and you don't qualify for a Special Enrollment Period.
- You can enroll during the next Open Enrollment. If you have life changes, like your household's income or your family size, you may be eligible to enroll sooner if you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period.

To see if you qualify, visit HealthCare.gov/reporting-changes, or see "Understanding Your Eligibility Notice," included with your first eligibility notice each coverage year.

What if information from my application changes during the year?

If you have life changes and the information you gave us when you applied is no longer correct, you need to let us know within 30 days of the change. Changes may affect your eligibility for:

- Premium tax credits
- Cost-sharing reductions that lower your copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles
- Coverage through Ohio Healthy Families (Medicaid) or Ohio Healthy Families (CHIP)

If you enroll in a Marketplace plan and later become eligible for other qualifying coverage, like Medicaid, CHIP, Medicare, or coverage through a job, you won't be eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, although you can keep your Marketplace plan and pay the full premium. If you become eligible for other qualifying coverage, you must contact the Marketplace to end your advance payments of the premium tax credit and let the Marketplace know if you also want to end your health plan. If you don't stop the advance payments of your premium tax credit to your health insurance company, you may need to pay back the payments paid on your behalf.

If someone works for a small business that offers help paying for a health plan, visit HealthCare.gov/help/qsehra to learn how this may affect your eligibility for the premium tax credit.

What should I do if I think my "Results" are wrong?

If you think we made a mistake, you can appeal a final determination of eligibility to the Marketplace Appeals Center. Please note that:

- If you need health services right away and a delay could seriously jeopardize your health, you can ask for a fast (expedited) appeal using the Appeal Request form or by sending a fax or a letter to the address below.
- You can represent yourself or appoint a representative to help you with your appeal. This person can be a friend, relative, lawyer, or someone else.
- You can ask to keep your eligibility during your appeal. If you were previously eligible for Marketplace coverage and your eligibility is changed, you may appeal this change. In this case, you may be able to keep your previous eligibility during your appeal.
- The outcome of an appeal could change the eligibility of other members of your household even if they don't ask for an appeal.

How much time do I have to request an appeal?

Generally you have 90 days from the date of your eligibility notice to request an appeal. However, if this notice says that someone needs to submit documents, then you must follow instructions for sending them. Until you submit documents and your issue is resolved, your eligibility notice isn't a final determination of eligibility and it can't be appealed.

How do I request an appeal?

- Visit HealthCare.gov/marketplace-appeals to get the Appeal Request form for your state; or

- Write a letter requesting an appeal. Include your name, address, and the reason you're requesting the appeal. If you're requesting an appeal for someone else (like your child), also include their name.

Then, fax your appeal request to a secure fax line: 1-877-369-0130, or mail it to:

Understanding Your Eligibility Notice

Am I eligible for coverage?

Your eligibility notice tells you which people on your application qualify to get health coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace, Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

Medicaid and CHIP provide free or low-cost coverage to people with limited income, disabilities, and in some other situations. Almost anyone can enroll in Marketplace coverage, but you can only enroll at certain times.

What to do next

Look at the table that starts on page 1 of your notice. Each person listed on your application needs to follow instructions in the "Next steps" column.

Medicaid & CHIP

People who have health coverage through Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) will pay little or nothing for health services and probably don't need a Marketplace plan.

If your notice says that you or your family members are eligible for Medicaid or CHIP, you'll get a notice from your state agency telling you about these programs.

What if I miss a deadline?

If you miss a deadline in your notice to submit information or enroll in a plan, you may not be able to enroll in a Marketplace plan until the next yearly Open Enrollment Period, for coverage starting January 1 of the next year.

Paying my premium

You'll pay your premium directly to your health plan, not the Marketplace. Your plan will send you information on when and how to pay. If you don't hear from your health plan, you should call or visit their website.

Special Enrollment Periods

If your notice says you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period, this means you have a chance to enroll in Marketplace coverage outside the Open Enrollment Period. You may qualify for a Special Enrollment Period if you've had a life event like losing health coverage, moving, getting married, having a baby, or adopting a child. For some Special Enrollment Periods, you may need to submit documents to confirm your eligibility, or your plan choices may be limited.

If you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period, you usually have up to 60 days after the life event to enroll in a plan. If you miss that window, you have to wait until the next Open Enrollment Period to enroll or until you have another qualifying life event.

You should re-apply for Marketplace coverage every year

Even if you're already enrolled, you should re-apply for Marketplace coverage every year to make sure your information is up to date. If you chose to let the Marketplace use tax information to help with your renewal, your information updates automatically.

If you have Medicaid, you'll get a letter from your state agency if you need to provide more information at renewal time.

Why do I need to report my income?

You don't have to report your income to get Marketplace coverage, but if you do, the Marketplace will check to see if you qualify for tax credits, cost-sharing or other programs that could lower your costs.

Bronze, Silver, Gold & Platinum categories

Health plans sold in the Marketplace are divided into 4 categories: Bronze, Silver, Gold, and Platinum. They range from Bronze plans with lower premiums and higher out-of-pocket costs, to Platinum plans with higher premiums and lower out-of-pocket costs. Plan choices may be limited during a Special Enrollment Period.

All plans cover all essential health benefits, and there are no dollar limits on the care you can get.

Catastrophic plans

A "catastrophic plan" is a plan with lower monthly premiums that mainly protects you from very high medical costs. People under 30 years old and people with hardship exemptions can buy a catastrophic plan through the Marketplace. These plans aren't eligible for premium tax credits.

Cost-sharing reductions

If your notice says you qualify for cost-sharing reductions, it means you can enroll in a Silver plan with discounted copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles.

Eligibility for most cost-sharing reductions is based on household income. If you're a member of a federally recognized tribe, you can get income-based cost-sharing reductions when you enroll in a Bronze, Silver, Gold, or Platinum plan, and you may also be eligible for additional cost-sharing reductions.

What does the Marketplace count as income?

When you apply for help with costs for Marketplace coverage, "income" includes things like wages, self-employment, cash income, Social Security benefits, unemployment, and withdrawals from retirement accounts. We don't count child support, gifts, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), veteran's disability payments, workers' compensation, or loan proceeds (like from student, home equity, or bank loans).

If you entered the wrong income on your Marketplace application or if your income changes, it's important to update your application.

What if I move, change jobs, get married, or have another change?

If you enroll in a Marketplace plan, you need to report these types of life changes within 30 days, since changes can affect your program eligibility and the amount you pay for your health plan.

How to report life changes:

1. Log into your Marketplace account
2. Select your current application
3. Select "Report a life change"
4. Or, contact the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596

Visit HealthCare.gov/reporting-changes for a full list of changes you must report.

Coverage for immigrant families

Lawfully present immigrants can apply for Marketplace coverage, even if they don't qualify for Medicaid. They may also be eligible to enroll in health coverage and get help with costs.

Individuals who aren't lawfully present can apply for Marketplace coverage for family members who may be eligible, like a lawfully present child or spouse. Individuals who aren't lawfully present may also be eligible for Medicaid to cover emergency medical treatment.

Premium tax credits

If your notice says you're eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, it means you can get "credit" to help pay your plan premiums every month. You'll see the available credit when you choose a plan, and it can be applied when you enroll. You can choose to apply all, some, or none of the available advance payments of the premium tax credit each month.

The amount of your tax credit is based on these factors:

- The number of people in your household. Your household includes the person who files the household's tax return, their spouse, and any dependents claimed on the tax return.
- Your household income for the year you want coverage. Households with income above 400% of the federal poverty level don't qualify.
- The cost of the second-lowest cost Silver Marketplace health plan in your area. This is the "benchmark" plan cost.

For more information about how to qualify for a premium tax credit, visit HealthCare.gov/lower-costs/qualifying-for-lower-costs.

When do I get the premium tax credit?

The Marketplace will send any advance payments of the premium tax credit directly to your insurance company, not to you. If you use less than the full amount of the credit, you may get the difference back at the end of the year when you file your taxes.

The final amount of your premium tax credit will be based on the actual income you report on your tax return for the coverage year.

Reporting premium tax credits on your federal tax return

If you get advance payments of the premium tax credit to help with Marketplace health plan costs, the tax filer in your household must file a federal income tax return. When they file, the credits you used during the year—which were based on your estimated income—will be “reconciled” with the credits you’re eligible for based on your actual income entered on your tax return and your other eligibility information.

- If your actual income is lower than what you reported on your application, you may be eligible for a larger premium tax credit.
- If your income is higher than what you reported on your application, you may have to pay back all or some of any excess advance payments of the premium tax credit that were made to your insurance company.

Report any changes in household size, income, and other eligibility information right away to make sure you’re getting the correct amount of tax credit during the year. For more information, visit HealthCare.gov/taxes-reconciling.

What if I file a
from my spouse?

If you’re married, you must file a joint federal income tax return with your spouse for the year you want premium tax credits. There are some exceptions, such as if you claim “head of household” status on your tax return, you’re a victim of domestic violence, or you’re an abandoned spouse. Call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 for more information.

Information for people with special health care needs

If you have special health care needs, you may qualify to get coverage for more health services and pay less for care. For example, if you:

- Have a medical, mental health or substance abuse condition that limits the ability to work or go to school
- Need help with daily activities, like bathing or dressing
- Regularly get medical care, personal care, or health services at home, an adult day center, or another community setting
- Live in a long term care facility, group home, or nursing home
- Are blind
- Are terminally ill

To see if you qualify, call your state Medicaid agency at the number included in this notice. You can also update your Marketplace application with your information. Medicaid may also pay medical bills from 3 months before you apply, so ask when you call.
